

Campaign for Y.M.C.A. Fund Still Under Way and Progressing

ADDITIONAL SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED—MANY OTHERS EXPECTED.

Although there has been no meeting of the Y. M. C. A. workers during the past week, quiet work has been done. As a result, a good many subscriptions have been received, aggregating something over a thousand dollars. Many have not yet been seen, and it will require that the campaign be extended to afford opportunity for all to have an opportunity to assist.

The Association expects to reach its goal and has every reason to believe it will shortly do so. If any friends have not been seen and desire to subscribe to the fund which will make it possible for the Association to give such good service to the community, especially the young people, it is suggested they get in touch with any officer of the Association, or with the General Secretary at the Association Building.

Workers in the campaign, who still have cards out, are requested by the Campaign Committee to push forward their work as speedily as possible, and to report from time to time at the Association in order that the work will be promptly reported. It is expected that a meeting of the workers will be called some time during the forthcoming week, and the workers and those interested should hold themselves in readiness for the call, in order that the final steps necessary to complete the work can be undertaken without delay.

The fine spirit of co-operation and assistance rendered by the citizens of Narberth, both by their work, effort, interest and contributions, has been a source of great inspiration to the Association and its officers, who are led to believe that better days are ahead for the Association which has for some years been struggling with the problem of meeting its obligations to the community.

With the continued co-operation and assistance of the friends of the Association, there can be no doubt as to the good work which it will be possible to accomplish.

The Penna. League of Women Citizens

There is no longer a Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association. At its 51st annual convention, held on Monday and Tuesday at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, the old organization was voted out of existence, and in its place was created a new and broader association, the Pennsylvania League of Women Citizens, whose object shall be still the enfranchisement of the women of the United States, and by non-partisan, non-militant organization and education to increase the effectiveness of women's votes and further better government.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Thanksgiving Exercises.—On Wednesday morning, from 8:45 to 10 o'clock, will be held the annual Thanksgiving exercises. Pupils of all grades will assemble in the auditorium. The little tots and older elementary pupils will entertain, together with the High School Chorus. The public is most cordially invited to attend. School will close at the conclusion of the exercises, to convene on Monday morning.

Donations.—The usual Thanksgiving donations will be received by the school authorities, to be presented to the University Settlement House. Green or dry groceries and clothing, old and new, will be appropriate donations. One of the greatest joys of the Thanksgiving season for the school is this joy of giving that comes to every pupil. Of course, care is taken that pupils give without ostentation, thus avoiding the heartache that comes to the little tot who can give little if anything.

Christmas Program.—Dates: Carol services, High School students, Monday evening, December 22nd, at 8 P. M. Grade exercises Tuesday afternoon, December 23rd, at 1:30. Vacation from December 23rd to Monday, January 5th.

Mothers' Meeting next Tuesday, November 25th, at 2:45 P. M. This meeting will be a general one for mothers of all grades and High School children. New residents of Narberth, whether parents or not, are especially invited. This meeting will afford an opportunity to become acquainted with the Narberth schools. On dates following this meeting smaller group conferences will be arranged for discussion of specific grade problems.

Athletic Notes.—The football season closed by Darby defeating the High School team. It's nice to have a good "alibi." Four of our regular fellows were not able to play; but the rest of our scores look better. Here they are: N. H. S. vs. Radnor 2nd team, 18-0. N. H. S. vs. Haddonfield, 6-6. N. H. S. vs. Radnor 2nd team, 6-6. N. H. S. vs. Lower Merion 2nd team, 32-0.

Sophomores vs. Darby, 20-12. Our Freshmen boys this week beat the Montgomery Day School by score of 26-13.

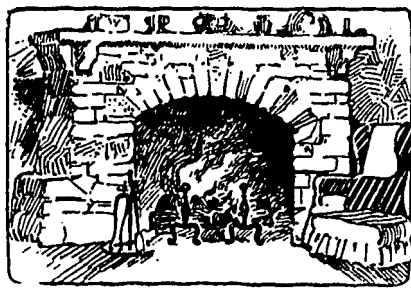

The Girls' Basketball Team has begun earnest practice. The boys are practicing. From present indications about 30 boys will try out for places.

The Indoor Athletic Contest, now recorded in history as the Senior High School Social, was a grand success. Every student is willing to say that never have any of the present students heard or seen such school spirit. Class yells, cheers and songs sprang into existence as mushrooms. May they not thus wilt, however. A similar happy evening is being planned for the younger students of the High School.

Anniversary of the Armistice.—The first anniversary of the signing of the armistice was celebrated by brief exercises following the devotional exercises on the morning of the 11th. Mr. Melchior waived all time to our four boys who were in the service, Fred Harsch, Arthur Cook, Merritt Sperry and Ross Hovestine. Each of these fellows gave some one thing worth while to remember. We hardly realized what platform talent these youthful soldiers and sailors possess. They certainly impressed upon us the fact that army life has proved to them that the fellow without an education has little chance to get anywhere.

Junior Literary Society.—Every other Friday at 1:10 P. M. we have our Junior High School Literary Society. The children plan their own programs through class committees.

THE FIRESIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. McConnell entertained as week end guests Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brenizer, Dr. and Mrs. Irwin C. Semmel and son and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. D. Cuerten and daughter.

Mrs. R. H. Schaffer and Mrs. A. W. Needham, just returned from State College, where they attended Pennsylvania Day house party.

"The Grey Wolf's Ghost," a dramatization of Bret Harte's thrilling romance of California of the old days, "Maruja," will be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday. The great Southwest, a land of romance, is woven into an unusual picture play in which H. B. Warner, one of our foremost dramatic stars, will be seen.

Approximately $60,000,000 was raised in Pennsylvania during 1917 and 1918 for war welfare work, while the patriotic contributions of the Keystone State citizens, if taken over the period beginning with the outbreak of the European conflict in 1914, would add probably another ten million dollars to the total.

According to reports the Thanksgiving turkey will be an expensive luxury this year.

More than a quarter of a million dollars' worth of real estate changed hands in Ardmore last week, it was announced by the Chamber of Commerce.

A THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

Once more comes the season of the year when Nature touches the forest with her colorful fingers; when the husbandman gathers his crops in from the fields; and when we of northern lands turn from a chilly outdoors to the cheering warmth of the fireside. This is the season of reckoning, of casting up the balance, of returning thanks for the fruits of the summer.

Our pioneer ancestors dedicated one day of the month of November to Thanksgiving. The custom in time became fixed. Today you and I inherit it in its richness of tradition, together with a wealth of other customs and institutions all wisely established by our fathers. To them we are grateful for the vision and courage that have made possible a land in which a day of Thanksgiving can be observed in fullness of heart—a land where life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are the common heritage.

The President of the United States has proclaimed Thursday, November 27, our day of Thanksgiving. Let us set it apart as a holiday to be observed in the spirit of humility in which it was conceived. Let us dedicate it and ourselves to a renewal of our abiding faith in the goodness of God, the greatness of our country, and in sanctity of our institutions.

Big Crowd Enjoys Tennis Celebration

LIVELY PARTY HELD LAST FRIDAY EVENING AT ELM HALL. PRESENTATION OF PRIZES, EATS, DANCING, BURLESQUE IMPERSONATIONS OF WELL-KNOWN MEMBERS—AND SOME JAZZING!

Members of the Narberth Tennis Association, their wives and friends, to the number of about one hundred, gathered in Elm Hall last Friday evening at the big party that marked the awarding of the prizes won in the 1919 tournament.

Almost everybody in the Tennis Association was there except Henry Rose and Jim Foote, who had a dinner engagement with Judge Gary or Charley Schwab or some other "higher up" in the Steel Trust. We don't suppose Hen or Jim missed us, but we missed them, and we hope that they'll let us know in the future when they have dinner parties on with "them Pittsburgh millionaires," so we can be sure and schedule our tennis affairs on other nights.

Violin Recital

THURSDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 4TH, IN THE Y. M. C. A.

A community violin recital will be given to the public on Thursday evening, December 4th, in the Y. M. C. A. by Miss Mary Fulton Gibbons. This recital is given under the auspices of the Women's Community Club, and through the columns of this paper this organization extends to all residents—lovers of good music—an invitation to this recital.

The value of community music has been recognized, and this organization feels it should be stimulated, as it proved a potential factor in camp and community life.

Miss Gibbons is a member of the faculty of Leefson-Hille Conservatory of Music, Inc., and has studied at the Royal Academy of Berlin, also with Prof. O. Seveik, of Vienna.

A real treat awaits all those who avail themselves of this opportunity. The press extracts given below are interesting and speak for themselves.

"The large hall of the Society of Friends of Music was filled to its capacity last night with a representative audience of real Viennese music lovers, the Vienna Tonkunstler Orchestra, the American violinist, Miss Mary Fulton Gibbons, and Prof. Alfred Grunfeld, pianist, contributing to an especially interesting program. Miss Gibbons, with her fine Amati violin, made a lasting impression on her enthusiastic audience, playing as she did with genuine musical intelligence, brilliant technique and beautiful virile tone. We learn that her many years of study were divided between the Berlin Royal Academy of Music, under Prof. Andreas Moser, and here in Vienna, where our celebrated Seveik was her master." —Vienna Freie Presse.

"Mary Fulton Gibbons, violinist, whose excellent equipment and finished artistry as revealed in a recital here yesterday afternoon indicate much and favorable public attention to her career, had a preliminary advantage in a program that was exceptionally interesting. Miss Gibbons displayed gifts that should mean a success in her profession of like magnitude as that of some of the notable pupils of her master, Ottokar Seveik. Her tone is broad and warm and her feeling for the spirit of the composer she interprets is as sympathetic as her rendition is well rounded." —Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

American Legion Dance December 5th

The Dance Committee of the American Legion earnestly request that all those devotees of the Terpsichorean art who wish to attend the first of their series of dances, address themselves to the nearest available member of the Legion, or to one of the committee, as soon as possible.

It is obviously impossible, with the limited floor space of Elm Hall, to accommodate comfortably all of the members and their friends who are anxious to indulge their balustrade proclivities, so that the situation is one of "first come, first served, and the devil take the hindmost," as Marcus Aurelius puts it so pithily in his "Maxims of the Mean-footed."

The diversissement under discussion takes place on Friday, the 5th of December, in that historic shrine, Elm Hall. Those famous jazz artists, "The Senators," who did so well by the Welcome Home dance of the service men, will again be the purveyors of melody which will go far to assure a lively time being had by all. The expense entailed is two dollars a couple, including war tax, which does seem very little, doesn't it?

The members of the committee are the following gentlemen: E. H. Wipke, I. T. Ward, R. A. Mueller, D. P. Trotter, J. M. Trotter, Norman Magill.

Women's Community Club Notes

MR. HENRY GIDEON, CHIEF OF THE BUREAU FOR COMPULSORY EDUCATION, TO ADDRESS CLUB ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25TH, 3 P. M.

The subject for Tuesday, November 25th, will be "Child Labor Laws." The existing laws and any new ones under consideration and their wide-reaching effects will be the substance for Mr. Gideon's talk.

A matter which so vitally effects the children of our land should be of paramount interest to all women. It is one of the largest issues before us today.

Musical numbers on program, in charge of chairman of music, Mrs. Joseph Barelay.

Hostesses in charge of Thanksgiving Tea: Mrs. G. H. Schulte, Mrs. L. C. Douglas, Mrs. B. Ramey, Mrs. W. E. Trowbridge, Mrs. Henry Rose.

Editorial

TO THE MUSICIANS OF NARBERTH AND VICINITY.

I am authorized by Mr. Fred C. Patten to announce that he is willing to take the leadership of a Community Orchestra in Narberth. Mr. Patten is widely known as a musician of unusual talent and experience, and this opportunity to profit by his offer should be gladly welcomed by all who appreciate the pleasure and improvement that are to be derived from ensemble playing.

In addition to this liberal offer of service, Mr. Patten states that his musical library will be available. The Y. M. C. A. will furnish a room for rehearsals. Under such conditions, there should be no difficulty in assembling material for a really creditable orchestra.

One of the main difficulties of amateur orchestras is irregularity of attendance of members; therefore only those who intend to be regular in attendance should apply for membership. Frequent absences of members are fatal to the success of such an organization. Mr. Patten laid special emphasis on this, in his conversation with me on the subject. Unless the instrumentation is complete, the effect of the music is destroyed, and as result, all are discouraged.

WORTH LESS THAN HALF

Sad but true is the fact that present-day money has less than half the purchasing power of four or five years ago, and that being the case, don't you think your life insurance should be revised to meet the new conditions? Fortunately, that very thing can be accomplished in a very economical fashion. Call me over some evening.

Those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity are requested to communicate with Mr. Patten, 126 Woodside avenue, Narberth, promptly, stating the instrument they play.

A. J. LOOS.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Dear Sir: Several times I have heard discussed among mothers of Narberth the matter of corporal punishment in our schools.

Is such punishment sanctioned by our School Board, and is it not unlawful in the State of Pennsylvania? Corporal punishment was abolished in New Jersey years ago in the schools. It is being abolished by States for prisoners. If our community still upholds it, I think it is a reflection upon us and our school.

What do other parents think about the matter? Do they think other methods of punishment would be at least more dignified, and doubtless more effective?

Even those of us who have never had the matter brought home to us personally should feel for other mothers who have, and have an interest in the community at large.

A MOTHER.

To the Editor of Our Town:

On Friday evening, November 7, the Narberth Fire Company gave a Band Concert in Elm Hall.

The next time the Narberth Fire Company give a Band Concert and do not let everyone in Narberth know that it is going to be a real affair, and do not let everyone know that it is going to be the best affair that anyone ever had the pleasure of listening to, members of the fire company are going to be choked. Here they go and get the Citizens' Band of Berwyn to come to Narberth to give us a real Band Concert for two hours and a whole crowd of almost fifty people were there to hear it.

It may not be the fire company's fault that the town did not advertise the proposition, or maybe if they had asked 50 cents or a dollar, instead of 25 cents, the concert would have been more largely attended. In addition to the Band Concert, they also gave you a chance on a turkey, which shows that people are not in a habit lately of getting a whole lot of value for a small outlay.

When the concert was over at 10.30, the band was good enough to play music for a dance until 11.30, which was duly appreciated and enjoyed by those who were lucky enough to attend.

Please, "Mr. Fire Company fellows," have the band again and let us all know when it is to be here, so that we can all enjoy it. We believe that through the efforts of the fire company's members something over $200.00 was raised to help put a new roof on the fire company's building, and it should not be much of an effort to finish the job if the company would let it be known throughout the borough.

ORPHEUS.

Club's Weekly Letter

To the Editor of Our Town:

On these fine frosty mornings man's fancy and conversation turns to the H. C. of L. problem. If you don't believe that, just listen to the daily gabfest in the smoking car or on the west end of the station platform. If you are not interested in the subject, or would prefer not to talk about or hear it discussed, you have only to go off by yourself in a quiet corner, if you can find one. The other morning I couldn't help overhear one of our energetic citizens telling his fellow passengers that it was an outrage to charge 25 cents for a collar and 5 cents for laundering it. He had decided to beat the game by wearing frayed collars and wearing but one a week. He went on to say, however, that the women seemed to do very little worrying about the H. C. of L., judging by the wonderful exhibition of $300.00 fur coats which was held on the east end of the platform every morning. "Yes, I'll bet if you go up into the first car right now, you'll see it filled with our 'poor working girls,' most of them wearing coats that would keep the members of their immediate families in food and clothing for the entire winter," said he. Well, if they can get away with it, who should worry?

Several people have spoken to me asking why the Street Commissioner wears such a dejected look these days. "Search me," sez I, "but I'll try to find out." So I walks right boldly up to Charley and, sez I, "Whatse matter?" You know Charley has a hard life, and there's a great deal to worry him, and while I don't like to butt in on his affairs, I only do so for the sake of cheering him up. Since July 1st, real cheer has been pretty scarce around here. "Blank it!" sez he, "they've pulled off three fights in Narberth the past week and I missed 'em he's going to petition the Burgess— all." So that explains it. Hump, says long distance—to issue one of his famous proclamations directing that all encounters in fistcuffs be heralded beforehand so that our local lovers of the manly art (otherwise known as a scrap) can be on hand to enjoy them.

BIG CROWD ENJOYS TENNIS CELEBRATION.

But to proceed with the main story. It was a right merry evening, and according to the official report that Chairman Pattison, of the Entertainment Committee, will make to the Board of Governors, "a pleasant time was had by all."

Bill Kirkpatrick's two-man jazz orchestra proved to be all that Bill claimed for it, and then some! As far as we personally are concerned it beat any brass band we ever heard. There was to have been a third man to play the flute or something, but if he had appeared and had added proportionally to the volume of jazz turned out by the other two, there certainly wouldn't have been any roof left on the hall. So perhaps it's just as well that he missed his train.

The evening's program included dancing, the presentation of the prizes won during the recent tournament, refreshments, consisting of ice cream and regular Salvation Army doughnuts, a series of burlesque impersonations of members of the club, in which Jim Donnelly scored a roaring success when he appeared as Walter Shaw, Perry Redifer and Champion Van Auker.

The prizes awarded were as follows: Lieutenant Commander Fred Van Auker, winner of singles championship, leather wallet; W. J. Kirkpatrick, runner up, leather card case; Walter Y. Shaw and Lawrence Warwick, winners of the doubles championship, leather belts with silver buckles; runners up, W. J. Kirkpatrick and Arthur Staples, racket presses; Mrs. A. M. Watts, winner of the ladies' single championship for 1918, racket press; J. F. Donnelly

SCHOOL NOTES.

The aims of the Society are various. Perhaps our first purpose is to have a good, get-together time, but we also are learning to speak in public and to choose suitable poems to recite or current topics to review. Literature is a "selective process," and we are beginning to discriminate in the choice of our contributions. We are also practicing telling jokes without omitting the point. But perhaps our most valuable work is in the debate department. Here we learn to talk concisely, to argue without losing tempers, to arrange our ideas cumulatively and clinch a point. The work of the judges is good training as well, for they practice that difficult art of listening well and deciding what is chaff and what is wheat.

Our programs this year have not had as much unity as we desire, but we have sacrificed that quality in order to get an all-round practice in current topics, jokes, poetry, recitations and debates. The committees voted to abandon the programs revolving about a literary figure of a holiday season, preferring to strike out and try something new. Our varied programs are the result.

Senior Literary Society.—The Senior Literary Society, which is composed of all the students of the four upper grades of our High School, has succeeded in conducting a most interesting series of meetings. From the first time the students were called together, early in our school term, to the present time, not only the officers and the Program Committee, but many of the students have cheerfully and persistently done their part to make the Society a success.

Each program is developed around one central theme. The first meeting took the form of a "Congress of the Powers," in which the President listened to representatives from the countries of poetry, current events, original work and music, as each pleaded for recognition of his country in the literary meetings of the year.

The program of our second meeting consisted in an oral edition of our school paper, with many well developed departments, including three editorials, alumni news, short stories, school notes, all of which was the students' own work—and a joke department, which was choice but not original. Another meeting was given over to the consideration of the lives and works of great men, who wrote during this last war. We thus honored not only our great war poets, but Theodore Roosevelt. Suitable solos helped to make the meeting a success.

This Friday afternoon the Society meets to discuss current topics. An ideal class in current topics is to be presented upon the stage, and discussion from the floor will be welcomed. Along with this we are to have several musical selections.

As each meeting comes and goes, those interested in the welfare of our boys and girls feel that we are progressing steadily toward our goal—namely, that we are all discovering talent along many lines; that our boys and girls are learning to express themselves clearly and forcefully; that they are learning to take the initiative to do for themselves and plan for others, and that last but not least, they are learning to take their turn cheerfully. Really interested visitors are always welcome every other Friday afternoon at 1.50 P. M.

Accomplishment.—Show me a man who makes no mistakes, and I will show you a man who doesn't do things.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Watch each week for some worth while quotation.

THE PENNSYLVANIA LEAGUE OF WOMEN CITIZENS.

As it will be a short time before the women of Pennsylvania will be allowed to vote, it seems necessary to prepare them and educate them in American citizenship and election laws and methods.

The National League of Women Voters, with which the Pennsylvania organization is affiliated, has outlined the following work:

1. American Citizenship.
2. Election Laws and Methods.
3. Food Supply and Demand.
4. Child Welfare.
5. Women in Industry.
6. Social Hygiene.
7. Unification of Laws Concerning the Civil Status of Women.
8. Research.

For the coming year only the first two subjects will be considered. The reason for this is that nothing can be accomplished unless actual conditions are understood. Therefore, under "citizenship," courses of instruction will be arranged under competent teachers on the ideals and organization of our national, state and local governments and how they operate. It is hoped that all the women of Narberth will become interested in this plan and join the classes, which will begin in January. There will be six lessons given by competent teachers all arranged by the National Association.

NOTICE.

The Women's Community Club will hold its meeting next Tuesday, November 25th, 3 P. M., in the club rooms, Y. M. C. A. Building. The meeting will be in charge of the Music Committee, of which Mrs. Joseph Barclay is chairman, and is to be a violin recital by Miss Mary Gibbons and other talent.

Mrs. Paul Swarty will also read a paper on "The Child Labor Laws."

LOUISE VON COCHRILL,

Press Chairman.

GIRL SCOUTS

Next meeting of the Girl Scouts will be held November 26th, in the Y. M. C. A. Every member should be present, as there will be a big surprise after a short business meeting.

The Girl Scouts have organized their basketball team:

Forwards—Dorothy Chalfant, Lois Smith.

Centre—Mabel Kirkpatrick (manager).

Side—Mabel Haney.

Guards—Martha Martin (captain), Dorothy Bottoms.

Substitutes—Annette Kront, Marion Knapp.

First game will be with Troop I, of Wayne, Pa., November 22nd, in Narberth Y. M. C. A. Admission, 10 cents to non-members.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
